

The FCC should stop Sinclair Broadcasting from its attempt to manipulate an election.

Remind Sinclair that people watch television, not corporations; and people vote.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law and the FCC to serve the public interest.

America, home of the used-to-be-free, media-manipulated!

Do the right thing!